he managers of two grocery stores about having a double coupon day. Neither of them was cooperative. So, that means when we have to make a trip to Salt Lake, we will go to those stores that double our coupons, and spend the bulk of our grocery money there.

Suppose you are a teacher. What kind of supplies and materials are available to you up here? Another reason to go to Provo.

but what may be good for Heber businesses, isn't necessarily what's best for my family. And getting the most for my money is a high priority. There just isn't enough competition here to keep prices down.

Heber is not self-contained; there are enough reasons to travel out, and so, spend money outside our community.

Give us some good reasons (and savings) to shop here, and we will.
